WHY WE GATHER

Whether you're a first-time guest or a longtime member, we're glad you're here! We believe that there are many ingredients involved in making a healthy Christian, and the Sunday morning gathering is definitely one of them. Each week we live our lives being bombarded by lies; we are told that we are so bad that we are beyond hope or so good that we are beyond need. Throughout our week we are tempted to put our hope in and stake our joy on things and people that will inevitably fail us. A gospel-centered, Jesus-exulting weekly gathering is a major defense against these errors. We need to be reminded by others and need to remind others of the wonders purchased for us by the person and work of Jesus Christ. Gathering with other Christians is a God-ordained means to do this.

Children's Church is available for children in kindergarten through the third grade on the first three Sundays of each month. Children's Church is dismissed from the Sanctuary before the sermon begins.

Would you like to help with Christmas decorations? We will decorate Nov 28-Dec 2. Watch for further announcements.

We've got books!

It's up to you whether to believe it or not, but there's treasure in the house! Visit our church library's fiction room to discover hours of page-turning adventure. For edgy, romantic suspense look for authors Irene Hannon, Danni Pettrey, or Lynette Eason. Susan Warren and Colleen Coble combine family and small-town intrigue with mystery and romance. Joel Rosenberg's suspense is more in line with today's world and more serious but will not disappoint; Robert Winslow's The Chosen People and its sequel The Promised Land are excellent. There's no topping Francine Rivers' historical fiction Redeeming Love (maybe you caught the recent movie) or her newest contemporary title The Masterpiece. Jill Irene Smith and Angela Hunt have written stirring biblical fiction about the lives of Old Testament women. If you like books that make you think about life or reminisce, look for something by Lisa Wingate, Ann H. Gabhart, or Rachel Hauck. And that just gets me started! There is so much more! Stop by to browse or catch me sometime and we'll talk books!

Just in case you don't know: The library area is in the foyer outside the south sanctuary door. Our fiction and biography collections are located near the restroom. Although we've downsized our nonfiction, a small collection can be found on the white shelves in the room to your left as you exit the sanctuary. To check out a book, sign and date the card in the back of the book. A crate is beneath the checkout table for returns. Jan Hollis, Library Director

Fall FBC Apparel: You can pick up an FBC Logo sweatshirt for only $12! We have white Gildan 50/50 long-sleeved sweatshirts with double-needle stitching at shoulders, armholes, neck, waistband and cuffs in sizes adult small-3x and 5x. These shirts are available in the FBC library. Payment can be placed in the lockbox.
